CANADIAN MEDICAL SCHOOLS RESPOND TO THE OPIOID CRISIS

Best Evidence Training for the Next Generation of Canadian Physicians on Pain Management, Opioid Stewardship and Substance Use Disorder – PGME and CPD.

LICENSE AND DISCLAIMER

The Association of Faculties of Medicine of Canada (“AFMC”) has created a free, online curriculum consisting of bilingual online courses that address opioid-related topics such as Injectable Opioid Agonist Treatment, Introduction to Medical Treatment of Opioid Use Disorder, Management of Chronic Pain in Diverse Patient Populations, Physician Liability, Chronic Pain and the Elderly, and Advanced Knowledge of Pain Management to educate future physicians on the diagnosis, treatment, and management of pain (the “Opioid Curriculum Webinars”).

Please read these terms and conditions carefully before accessing this webinar series

Access to and use of the Opioid Curriculum Webinars are subject to the following terms, conditions and disclaimers:

No Medical Advice

AFMC does not make any warranties in respect of the medical information provided including, without limitation, with respect to its accuracy or completeness. The Opioid Curriculum Webinars is not a substitute for professional medical advice, diagnosis or treatment.

Intellectual Property

AFMC owns all right, title and interest in and to the Opioid Curriculum and any and all modifications, variances and updates thereto whether made by AFMC or third parties on its behalf.

Disclaimer of Warranties

The Opioid Curriculum is provided on an as-is and as-available basis, and AFMC expressly disclaims any and all warranties of any kind, whether express or implied, and whether or not known or discoverable. Without limiting the foregoing, AFMC makes no representations or warranties of the following: warranties of title, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, absence of latent or other defects, accuracy, or the presence or absence of errors, and any other warranty that might arise under any law.

No Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, under no circumstances will AFMC be liable to you for any direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential or exemplary damages including, without limitation, damages for loss of profits, lost data, loss of use, personal injury, wrongful death or any other intangible losses, whether the action is in contract, tort, negligence or any other cause of action, arising out of your use of the Opioid Curriculum and the corresponding webinars and website.

Indemnity

You agree to indemnify and hold harmless AFMC and its employees and/or contractors against any claims or expenses, including legal fees, arising from any violation by you of the terms and conditions of this Notice of License and Disclaimer.

Acknowledgement of Support

AFMC acknowledges the funding support by Health Canada of AFMC's "Academic Medicine Responds to the Opioid Crisis: Developing a Canada-wide, competency-based curricula for future physicians in pain management, substance abuse and addictions" initiative, pursuant to the Substance Use and Addictions Program established by Health Canada.
