

Regional Education Humber River Health

Tuesday, May 16, 2023

*3rd Floor Auditorium
- Virtual Option Available -*

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 4:45 PM | Registration and Light Dinner |
| 5:00 PM | Welcome and Introductions
Dr. S. Zaki Ahmed, Chief of Staff |
| 5:10 PM | Coaching in Medical Learning
Dr. Jennifer Turnnidge, Health Education Research Consultant |
| 5:40 PM | Providing High-Quality Feedback to Learners (in a CBME model)
Dr. Karen Schultz, Associate Dean PGME
Dr. Rajeevan Rasasingham, Director of Continuing Professional Practice Development, Department of Psychiatry, University of Toronto |
| 6:20 PM | Building a Teaching Dossier
Dr. Priya Sood, Postgraduate Site Program Director for Family Medicine
Dr. Eleftherios Soleas, Director of CPD, Queen's University |
| 6:50 PM | Wrap up & Evaluations
Dr. Eleftherios Soleas, Director of CPD, Queen's University |

This program has been reviewed by Queen's and provides 2 CFPC and/or Royal College Credits

Speakers

Dr. S. Zaki Ahmed

Dr. S. Zaki Ahmed is an Internist, Respiriologist, and Intensivist by training and has been involved in medical education since the formative years of the Northern Ontario School of Medicine and led the creation of the Medical Clinical Teaching Unit in Thunder Bay, Ontario. He is a Registered Coach and a Certified Physician Executive. He brings these experiences to his role as Chief of Staff at Humber River Hospital.

Dr. Jennifer Turnnidge

Dr. Jennifer Turnnidge is a Health Education Researcher & Consultant with the Office of Professional Development and Educational Scholarship (OPDES). She received her PhD in Sport Psychology from Queen's University. She collaborates closely with teams throughout the research process, including writing grants, ethics applications, data collection and analysis, and knowledge translation activities.

Dr. Karen Schultz

Having grown up on the west coast and then doing my BSc on the east coast at Dalhousie University I subsequently obtained my medical degree and did my family medicine training at Queen's. The majority of my working career has been in the Department of Family Medicine at Queen's. I had the pleasure of being the FM Program Director for 8 years, and more recently the Associate Dean, Postgraduate Medical Education for the last 2.5 years.

Speakers

Dr. Rajeevan Rasasingham

Dr. Rasasingham is the Director of Continuing Professional and Practice Development for the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Toronto. He is the National Chair of CPD Directors in Psychiatry in Canada and has been instrumental in advancing Continuing Professional Development nationally in Psychiatry. His research has focused on virtual care and practice change in CPD. He has been awarded the Council on Psychiatric Continuing Education Award and the Ivan Silver Award for Innovation.

Dr. Priya Sood

Dr. Priya Sood is the Postgraduate Site Program Director for Family Medicine at Humber River Hospital. Dr. Sood is leading the establishment of Humber River Hospital's Schulich Centre for Family Medicine. She is committed to developing a residency program centered on equitable, community-based family medicine. Dr. Sood is a Full Time Assistant Professor at the University of Toronto Department of Family and Community Medicine with a clinical focus on comprehensive family medicine practice and inpatient palliative care.

Dr. Eleftherios (Terry) Soleas

Terry is the Director of Continuing Professional Development at Queen's University as well as Adjunct Faculty at Queen's Health Sciences. His research focusses on motivation, learning science, and professional development most often using mixed-method approaches. His interests include trying to be funny, baking, and loudly discussing current events through justice lenses.