

Regional Education Lakeridge Health Regional

Agenda - Thursday May 25, 2023 LHEARN Centre

4:45 PM	Registration and Light Dinner
5:00 PM	Welcome and Introductions Dr. Anthony Stone
5:10 PM	Why I precept? And How I Make it Work For Me Dr. S. Kavita Sridhar
5:40 PM	Psychological Safety in the Learning Environment: Confronting Microaggressions For Learners and Peers Dr. Andrew Thomas
6:20 PM	Providing Effective Feedback and Comments Dr. Heather Braund

Speakers

Dr. Anthony Stone

Dr. Stone is a family physician who has delivered care to patients at Lakeridge Health since 1992. His community practice is located in Bowmanville. He completed his undergraduate and post-graduate medical training the University of Toronto and received his certification from the College of Family Physicians of Canada in 1992. He is the Interim Regional Director of Clinical Education for Queen's University at Lakeridge Health. He also serves as Lead Physician for the Clarington FHO. Dr. Stone is an Adjunct Assistant Professor with Queen's University Faculty of Medicine and regularly preceptors residents for the ROMP program. Dr. Stone and his family have resided in Durham Region since 1970.

Dr. Kavita Sridhar

Dr. Kavita Sridhar is an Intensive Care physician at Lakeridge Health Oshawa and the Education Lead for the Department of Critical Care. She did the majority of her training at the University of Ottawa, followed by a Critical Care fellowship in Calgary. Upon returning to Ontario, Dr. Sridhar completed a Master's Degree in Bioethics at the Joint Centre for Bioethics, University of Toronto, while working as a Clinical Associate at Toronto's Mount Sinai Hospital. She joined Lakeridge Health in 2012 and has been the Education Lead for a number of years. She holds the position of Assistant Professor at Queen's University and is the co-chair of Lakeridge's Bioethics Committee.

Dr. Andrew Thomas

Dr. Andrew Thomas is a Family Physician at the Bowmanville Health Centre. There he leads the Family Medicine portion of the Queen's Medical School Longitudinal Integrated Clerkship in Durham. He is also the President of the Black Physicians' Association of Ontario. He completed his Family Medicine Training at QBOL in 2019.

Dr. Heather Braund

Dr. Heather Braund is a Health Education Researcher and Consultant with OPDES. She also holds assistant professor (adjunct) appointments with the School of Medicine and the Faculty of Education at Queen's where she has taught courses in curriculum design, knowledge translation, program evaluation, and cognition. She is also a certified teacher with the Ontario College of Teachers. Heather has a B.Sc. (Honours) degree in Psychology and Biology from Trent University. She completed her B.Ed., M.Ed., and Ph.D. in Education at Queen's University.

Regional Education - Lakeridge Health
Thursday, May 25, 2023